

RESEARCH GRANT GUIDELINES

ClearPoint Neuro, Inc. (“ClearPoint Neuro”) from time to time provides grants to support bona fide scientific and clinical research.

Requirements

1. The research must be legitimate and deemed by ClearPoint Neuro to be scientifically rigorous in areas of relevance to ClearPoint Neuro, i.e., functional and stereotactic neurosurgery
2. The research must be conducted by qualified persons as documented in the request for grant funding and deemed acceptable by ClearPoint Neuro.
3. The research must be intended to provide valuable scientific and clinical information, improve clinical care, provide leads to promising new diagnoses and/or treatments, promote better delivery of health care, or provide other benefits to patients.
4. If the support provided includes free products, neither the grant recipient nor any investigator may bill any study subject or any third party for such product.
5. Research grants will not be provided to purchase equipment or provide general operational support for a health care professional.
7. Research grants will not be offered or provided with the intent of directly or indirectly encouraging the recipient to use, purchase, lease, order, or arrange for or recommend the use, purchase, lease, or order of ClearPoint Neuro products or as a reward for such past behavior.
8. All requests for Research Grants must be independently initiated in writing by the individual or research entity that proposes to conduct the research and must include the following information:
 - A protocol, statement of work, study abstract or other information describing the research to be performed, including a project timeline
 - A description of the qualifications of the research institution and investigators
 - A budget for the research project
 - A statement describing how the research will serve one or more of the purposes described in paragraph 3 above.
 - Timeline for use of funds and completion of research
 - Contact information for follow-up by ClearPoint Neuro (including e-mail address)

Grant requests may also be submitted by e-mail or hard copy as follows:

- Email- Email all documents to: ClinicalAffairs@clearpointneuro.com
- Mail to:

ClearPoint Neuro, Inc.
